Feature Film

Four Walls

Année: 2018

Logline: Four Walls by Mustafa Ozgun is a contemplative exploration of love, loss, and disillusionment, told through four intimate stories. In confined spaces, characters confront broken relationships, unspoken regrets, and the limits of human connection. As they navigate moments of betrayal, yearning, and self-discovery, the narrative reflects the fragile, often painful nature of intimacy and the search for meaning amid emotional isolation.

Documentary

Des Pyrénées à la Dovrefjell

Année: 2024

Logline: This documentary follows a Chinese producer living in France who, by chance, uncovers the story of the panda and its ties to two generations and two cities. Compelled by these connections, she embarks on solo explorations in Sichuan, Paris, and the Basque region, gathering first-hand accounts. Finally, she decides to return to Sichuan, retracing the origins of the story like Father David once did.

Zhi He

Année: 2020

Logline: This documentary delves into the behind-the-scenes story of the ICICLE brand, following its founder step by step as they explore the narratives and inspirations behind the design process.

SOLSTICE FILMS

Conte de Foêts

Année: 2019

Logline: Jacques wandered through the forest, where he encountered a mysterious woman. Together, they stumbled upon a film crew shooting deep within the woods. After a surreal, dreamlike series of events, Jacques met the woman once again—but this time, it seemed as though she remembered nothing of their previous encounter.

Rose de Chine (《凉风抚心》)

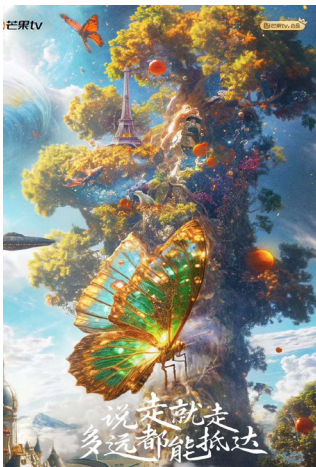

Année: 2024

Logline: Rose de Chine follows Matthieu, a reclusive man tormented by his past, whose life is disrupted by the arrival of Charlotte and her daughter Rose at his remote manor. Through Rose's spiritual guidance, Matthieu confronts his guilt and embarks on a journey of forgiveness and emotional redemption. This poignant tale explores themes of grief, hope, and the transformative power of human connection.
